A longtime member of the Board of Governors and a true friend of the University of Haifa.
In tribute for his work over the years, in many arenas, to strengthen the dialogue between Arabs and Jews in the State of Israel; for the promotion of peace; and in tribute of his activities in promoting higher education among the younger generation of Arab and Druze.