UNIVERSITY OF HAIFA

The campus of the University of Haifa sits atop Mount Carmel, merging Haifa's southern border with the Carmel National Park. The University offers undergraduate and graduate studies in the areas of Humanities, Social Sciences, Natural Sciences, Law, Social Welfare and Health Sciences, and Education. A pluralistic student body of over 18,000 undergraduate and graduate students study together in an atmosphere of coexistence, tolerance and mutual respect. The faculty and students - from long-established cities and development towns, from kibbutzim and moshavim, new immigrants, Jews, Arabs, and Druze, IDF officers and members of the defense establishment – come together in joint intellectual pursuits and make the University of Haifa an international leader in many fields of research.
